

St Snelling Minn
March 3rd 1844

Dear father and mother I again take pen in hand to drop a line to you & let you know that I am well as what you might call well the I have been to the doctor today but it is nothing but a bad cold and that is enough I think that I shall send my things to Messrs and then you can get them I think that I shall send about two hundred dollars by express to Messrs and you can send by some responsible person and get it if I send it that way you will find it at the express office

If i see any other way to send it so that it will be safe i shall do so i will let you no by letter when and how send it and if i send it by express i will let you know when it will be there for you

I have written to John Mitchell to look out a good place and attend to buying and making out the papers for i no that pap is not obbl i want you and pap to please yourself in a place and have John attend to it and i will for since i think that i could send two hundred dollars more at the end of six months which will bring around another party

Give my love to my Sond hable. I would like to have hable thy with you untill get home we dont expect to have to stay more thy one year but we are not certain of that Give my best respects to rack so no more your ever obedient son & Warthon you will not write untill you hear where I am going to stay a while we dont no what day we shall be ardered away from here So father mother sister, and brother good by
