Biography: ⁴
 Amos Underwood was reared on pioneer farm and received the rudiments of an education in such neighborhood schools as were provided in the days of his youth. In the year 1812 he was united in marriage to Mary Shirk, who was born on September 16, 1791, daughter of John and Barbara (Hoover) Shirk and to this union eleven children were born, namely: Reuben. Born on October 17, 1814; Isaac, September 30, 1816; John, October 26, 1818; Zephaniah. The immediate subject of this memorial sketch; Amos, March 5, 1823; Lewis, March 16, 1825; Senath, April 25, 1827; Thomas E., August 22, 1829; Priscilla Jane, December 15, 1831; William June 20, 1884, and Elihu, February 17, 1839, all of whom are now deceased save the latter, who is well-known and highly respected resident of this county. Amos Underwood and his wife were earnest and devoted members of the Friends church and their children were reared in accordance with the strict tenets of that simple faith, becoming useful men and women in the several spheres of life to which they were called. The mother of the above children died when well past middle age and Amos Underwood married, secondly, Priscilla Lewis, of Highland county, this state, to which latter union there was no issue. [1]

- Clinton County, Ohio:

- established 19 Feb 1810

- The territory within the limits of the county was originally parts of both Highland and Warren Counties, being a part of the land that was reserved as "Virginia Military Survey" to reward the soldiers of the Revolutionary War and known under the general name of "Military Lands". The county is bounded as follows: On the North, by Greene and Fayette Counties, on the East, by Fayette and Highland Counties, on the South, by Highland and Brown Counties, and on the West, by Warren County. <https://co.clinton.oh.us/ClintonCountyHistory>
