

OBITUARY

Henry Haas was born in Germany, March 4, 1866. He came to New York with his parents while yet a small child. He lived in New York until the age of 16 years, when he came to Wauseon. On Dec. 31, 1889 he was united in marriage with Anna Impton. To this union one child was born, who died in infancy. He became a member of the United Brethren church in Bryan and as far as his health and circumstances permitted, was loyal and faithful to the end. He was a kind and loving husband and a lover of his home. In his going the church and the community have sustained a loss. Our loss is his gain.

"There is a land where beauty can not fade, nor sorrow dim the eye; where true love shall not droop nor be dismayed, and none shall ever die."

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank all friends and neighbors who gave help and sympathy in our recent bereavement; to those who sent floral offerings, to Rev. Rhodes for his comforting words and to many who gave help and comfort, we are sincerely grateful.—Mrs. Anna Haas.

Woods of Box Trees

The box tree is a native of Great Britain and two woods of box trees may still be seen in the south of England. Hedges of box are comparatively common.
