G. A. A.

A CANDID camera managed by Miss Katherine King has caught members of the Girls' Athletic Association in eleven exposures during the year's activities.

The first picture is underdeveloped, as only a small group turned out for volleyball in October. Volleyring was on the stage for the first November snapshot, with a get-acquainted party for girls interested in athletics under the spotlights in a third print.

Our enthusiastic basketball players appeared in an action snap taken just before Christmas vacation. Then there is the picture of a tense moment in the Burriss-Central volleyball game from which Central emerged the victor.

When sports were revived in January, a new one, ping-pong, made a dramatic entrance. Rosemary Walters got into the picture as singles champ.

Basketball practice again flared up in March. In our album of photos we find a snap of the Wabash-Central fray, which ended 29-15, Wabash. Here we also see a snap of the annual night intramural game. In the ninth exposure we have Rhea Campbell, Betty Norrick, and Donna Belle Risk displaying M's they had recently received.

Another social affair is revised in the tenth print. This time Burriss G. A. A. was being entertained at a sport fiesta. Then the Kendallville play day — what memories this picture brings back! There Donna Belle Risk received the first state award to be earned by a Central girl.

Members of the G. A. A. are: Donna Belle Risk, president; Ruthellen Smith, vice-president; Harriet Williams, secretary-treasurer; Shirley Barnet, Jo Ann Becket, Rhea Campbell, Evon Carey, Juanita Clevenger, Oma Early, Frances Eastman, Norma Haas, Olive Haas, Mary Ellen Harriott, Julia Ann Harris, Maxine Heldenbrand, Harriett Hetzler, Esther Kimm, Carita Lacey, Gail Malsbary, Miriam Martin, Merial Miles, Margaret Mitchell, Thelma Moore, Hattie Nixon, Betty Norrick, Betty Osborne, Helen Poindexter, Betty Roeger, Norma Reynolds, Duetta Schiffler, Wanda Betty Simpson, Betty Van Arsdol, and Rosemary Walter.
