There are thirty-one young men in Hamilton county examined by the conscription board last week who are not satisfied because the local board denied claims for exemptions and have appealed to the District Board at Indianapolis. All of these thirty-one except two claimed exemptions on the grounds of dependency. The two said they were members of the Friends church and the discipline of that organization forbids its members from bearing arms.

The board completed this list of appeals today. It is as follows:

Raymond Talmage Briles, Cicero.

Zeri E. Barker, Westfield.

Everett Charles DuBois, Noblesville
