

25 YEARS AGO

The Thomas Nye poultry house has moved from the McMahon barn to the Dr. Wood barn, corner of Sixth and Conner Sts. Dan Presser, manager, will have charge of the new location. The business is owned by Thomas Nye, of Greenfield.

Deputy County Treasurer C. C. White made the largest deposit he has ever made during the many years in the treasurer's office, perhaps the largest deposit the treasurer of the county ever made. Included in the cash items was a check for $110,700 signed by Harry L. Craig and made payable to L. G. Heiny, as treasurer, the amount of gravel road bonds which the treasurer sold a few weeks ago.

Mrs. F. E. Heylmann and Mrs. Joseph Sturdevant were at Arcadia and attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Bardonner, in the German Lutheran church.

Oscar C. Robbins has purchased 80 acres in Fall Creek township from Charles M. Warren for $7,200.

Will Well, who retired from the