

70 YEARS AGO

S. R. Truitt has got a new awning in front of his drug store. The awning works with a spring, it can ~~be raised or lowered in a few seconds~~ goes behind the clouds.

Rev. J. R. Smith, the pastor of the M. E. church at this place for the past year, goes to Perrysburg somewhere in the north part of the state. Rev. George Haven, who is well known in this part of the country, comes to Noblesville.

We have from time to time called the attention of our citizens to the necessity of a hook and ladder company in our town. Who will be the first to move in this matter?

Clarksville: G. E. Creag and A. J. Fribargher have bought the stock of goods of J. C. Weaver and opened a dry goods store. Jacob Henry, William Swartz and Reuben Kaiser have built new fences. No white wash or paint has been used this spring though there is room for it.

Common Pleas court commences Monday, May 2nd, with a full docket. The jury: Stephen White, Eli Brooks, Noblesville township; James Yow, and Jesse Foulke, Washington; Benjamin Chapel, Clay; John Wise, Delaware; Jeremiah Sherman, Fall Creek; Wm. Ford, Wayne; James Morris, White River, Frank Noble and James Shields, Jackson; Caswell Boxley, Adams.
