Prepared by Charles Swettworth,
 3.17.1905 to Custodian of Records

William, William, and others, master Trustees of the Wilmington meeting property, 6.18.1831. His name was Helbert, and he owned the farm on the S. W. corner of Wilmington, long occupied as a nursery of trees, by Isaac Melly. Their remains were interred in Ireland's grave yard at the west end of Bogart's Street, Wilmington, Ohio, and placed there side by side till the grave yard was located and beside place and the remains of the dead buried, when John James and Isaac B. Swettworth, the then Trustees of the property, under the name, by Miami man's direction, to the Village of Wilmington, not far from 1840.

Adam, Sabilla Ann was born - was a woman 11.30. 1840, for outgiving in marriage and joining another society.

Allen, Abraham lived with his family about 3/4 of a mile north west of Center meeting house. Was made clerk of our meeting from 1840 to 1845, and held the position for quite a while. He became a pacifist and active anti-slavery man, and was put as a station keeper and conductor on the "Underground Railroad". With all he was an extremely vigorous, skillful and useful man. However, in his views and practices he was not moderate enough to please the controlling group of his men, which, N. 13, 1845, accused him for signing a protest or disclaimer directed against an approved minister of another yearly meeting than Indiana (i.e. George F. White, of N. Y. Y. M. who, however, was not named in the charge brought against him) while signing the methods of the extreme anti-slavery abolitionists.

B. Harlan, the son, was the father of Clara B. Harlan, and lived on the south side of the Lumbike nearly a mile west of Oakland, Ohio, who said she now lived. The latter has served at least two times as member of the Ohio House of Representatives.

Harrison, Anna (Parent)

John } Their friends were carted to Stephen } Miami on m. 10.15.1835. I know Martha } not when they lived either before or after their transfer.

Haycock, James - Accepted from Wheeling on m. Center County, Pa. 3.13.1834. I know nothing further of him.

Heston, Daniel

Heston, Susan R. (Parent) } Accepted 5.21.1831, from Baltimore Edward S. } m. on for the Western District. The Mother, with four sons and three daughters, (including the brick near Tome) of two more daughters) were carted to Whitehaven on 3.17.1831 and then the mother came in prison as Susan R.

Lusannah.

Heston, Jane, Accepted from Baltimore m. on for the Western District 5.21.1831. She was carted to Whitehaven m. on. 3rd, 6.16.1836.

Heston, Letitia (Sometimes given as Letitia H.), accepted 5.21.1831, from Baltimore m. on for the Western District, and carted 9.15.1832 to Springfield m. on. Warren County, Ohio.

As to these Hestons - Jane was full sister to Samuel, and passed her home with him. Letitia was their half sister, and became the second wife of Jacobus Loomis who was somehow united to Samuel Heston's children, or part of them for it seems Samuel was twice married, his first wife having been Rebecca Loomis (sister of Jacobus) who was the mother of Edward S. above, if not of other of the children. Said Edward S. was the husband of Letitia Heston, now of Springfield, who was probably somewhat related to him for they were both Hestons. Susan R. (in Lusannah) served her m. on in various capacities, while a member of Center.

Amos C. b. 6.27.1827

The father of this family was some grade of cousin to Christopher Hest, whom I see, and the mother, John was daughter of Isaac and Rhema Perkins - the latter was Leonard's third sister of John and Elizabeth Leonard and of Salina (Leonard) Allen and - (Leonard) Leonard, wife, respectively of James Allen and Jacob Haines, all early settlers near Center.

The home of Elizabeth and John was long an old-fashioned brick house on the east side of the Lania road, nearly 6 miles northward of Wilmington but in extreme age the were demolished with their son-in-law and daughter, Joseph and Sarah Whiney, and their children. Both had been active members of their m. on. He often served as Clerk. The daughter, Elizabeth, before her marriage and afterwards, served her m. on. in various capacities. She intermarried with Joseph Whiney 5.22.1833 and so became Sarah Whiney. (See Joseph Whiney) The son, Hest, Isaac P. - married out of the area of friends, but made satisfaction on account thereof. His wife was once a member. They lived many years on a farm on the west side of the Lania Road, about a mile south of Greenbush, Clinton Co. N. Y. but as age came on they moved into that village where she died, and he still is lately, lived. The son, Hest, Allen, married, and lived in a nice brick house on the west side of the same Lania road about 6 miles northward of Wilmington O. He forfeited his membership by outgrowing in marriage, and has various trials and losses, and when he became aged, committed suicide.

Elizabeth, Mary Ann, another daughter, married 2.20.1860 to Samuel C. William Goodale, and so changed her name - (See Mr. Goodale's name)

William Goodale, and so changed her name - (See Mr. Goodale's name)

After the death of her husband, she moved to Wilmington, Ohio, and there contracted a second marriage, with Agarish Le Wert, but the union was not happy and they separated. She died of cancer of the face at her home on South street, leaving a quite large estate.

Hiatt, Swannah, (commonly called Susan) was somewhat used in the 19th service, before her outgoings in marriage with Presley Leonard. In the breach of vows she made due acknowledgment, and returned her rights. In 1865 she and her family, lived on a farm near her father, later they were a while in Richmond Ind., and later in several different places near far from Center and Wilmington. Her husband, who was a son of the pioneer John & Lydia (Blacklock) Leonard, died a year or two ago, and she, a widow, lives with her son-in-law and daughter, Damon L. & Emma Fox, in Springfield, Ohio. In a number of years last past she has been an Orthodox Friend.

The daughter

Hiatt, Lydia, by marriage, changes her name to Lydia Stump, and in 1846, was acknowledged for outgoings in marriage.

Hiatt, Narcissa, another daughter, paid some attention to her own which, 7/17/1851 makes a representation to the evening Lib. The daughter Hiatt, Phoebe, who married Harry Oglethorpe in a marriage inconsistent with Friends' rules, but she made satisfaction with her Friends, and continues a member. However, she does not appear to be a member now. She lives with her husband and family, about a mile west of Xenia, O.

Hiatt, Anna Cook, the youngest child took a wife, who has been long deceased. The marriage was accomplished otherwise than by Friends, since her 6/19/1852 he made satisfactory acknowledgment, and presents his right in the society. Has lived south of Xenia, and east of it, and perhaps elsewhere, being now settled near Buck Run, Ohio, 2 or 3 miles S. of New Lexington.

Hiatt, Mary Ann (possibly her maiden name was David) having gone out in marriage, made satisfaction 7/18/1859, and was continued a member. Two months later 9/19/1859 she was certified to Fall Creek on W. Highland Co. O. I think.

Hiatt, Christopher, and Joanna his wife, with a family, lived about 1/2 mile westward of Martinsville, Clinton Co. O. Were members of the Newberry meeting, and of Fall Creek, later Clear Creek, now in Highland and County, Ohio. Christopher and some of the family were attached to Center on upon the laying down of Clear Creek on in 1854. He was a leading Friend and public spirited citizen. He was one of his family as now member of the Hicksite branch of Friends. Several of them are Quakers.

Hiatt, Martha, or Martha D., married Hiatt after her marriage, which was accomplished out of the order of Friends. She made satisfaction in her outgoings, 10/12/1852, and, 1/13/1853 took certificate to White Lake on W. Ind. Before marriage her name was Hutton, and she held many positions and rendered much service in her m. m. Phileas, which is possibly this Martha Hutton was daughter of Amos and Martha Hutton, whose maiden name I have just learned, who, having married out of Friends order, made satisfaction 9/15/1839. Most likely it was the same woman in each case - the first husband having died. Of course there may have been two Martha Huttons, not mother and daughter, one Martha & the other Martha D. yes or no.

Himes, Nathan, I am not sure, but presume these were Himes, Sarah, 3 men and wife, and that Sarah was daughter of Pioneer Joseph Doan. He has a daughter who married a Hime and became the mother of Jonathan C. Hime, and Jesse Hime, and perhaps other children, and having been left a widow, married George Shields - was his 2d. wife - near Newry, in Hamilton Tp. Warren Co. O. Nathan was made representative to the Yearly Mtg. 1840, with John Perkins, Abraham Miller and William McMillan, 11/15/1838, and again, 10/20/1852, with Stephen Hensenhall, Reginald Hiatt and Hiram Hensenhall. And Sarah was made like representative, with Ruth Whining, Margaret Sabrin and Ruth Leonard, 1/12/1829.

Hockett, Jacob, son of Joseph and Ruth (Jackson) Hockett, the latter daughter of the noted old one-eyed preacher, Jacob Jackson, who died about the close of 1844 in the 77th year of his age. Said Jacob Hockett married for a 2d. wife the widow Pious Hime, near Xenia, who was not then a member, but joined afterwards, and finally settled with her husband and children on the east side of the Sandusky, midway between Wagoner and Harveysburg, having become members of Williams m. m. upon the laying down of Center m. m. in 1844, while yet living among the old Newberry Friends, near Martinsville.

 William b. 6.6.1834. d. 3.4.1899 } At the time of her John b. 2.17.1832. still living } marriage she was not a member, and Amos was dismissed for outliving his marriage with her. Later Mary became a member on commencement, and for eight or ten years her first six sons may have been admitted with her. This was probably in Penn. and it may be that she brought her right (from the children of that was the members) to Centre on m. before the Division of 1834. or the children may have been admitted at Centre before the birth of Amos. The family lived in those days north of Dover some distance and must have constituted part of the membership of Dover m.m. when it moved on in 1834, or soon after it was set up - for in fact, their rights may have been brought to Dover on m. directly from the east. Some time after Mary joined Amos was restored to membership also. And he and his wife were plain exemplary friends all their remaining days - but during their m.m. in various capacities, he especially. Centre m.m. minutes indicate that on his application 9.15.1832, he and his three minor children, Harriet, Thomas Lewis and Priscilla Jane, after being given a committee in the usual order, were received into membership. If the minutes are correct, that must have been the time of his restoration, and the manner of it, and that these children were not before that members of the Society at all. But it is possible the whole family were members before, and that Amos and these three children were now accepted at Centre, without certificate. Harriet, Thomas and Priscilla were accepted at Centre, but in that case the minute is wrong. One may or may not all the children and the mother, as well as the father came to be regarded by the m.m. at Centre as its members. The son Isaac was accepted from Canaan, Ohio, on m. 8.9.1847, but how he came to have a right of return, I have not learned. Later he was certified to Miami on m. 9.19.1861, and finally settled in Hamilton County, Ind., having preceded Catherine Dabney, who afterwards became a member with Isaac. But to return to the father - After his wife, Mary, died, he married, 1.17.1850, to Priscilla Lewis, nee Threlk, widow of Daniel Lewis, of Highland Co., Ohio, and 4.19.1850 was certified to Springfield m.m. Later, 7.14.1853, he and Priscilla were accepted on certificate from that meeting, and later, 4.13.1857, were certified, with his sons William and John, to Miami m.m. and settled on a farm lying partly in Centre and partly in Warren Co., Ohio, being part of the Wagonville & Wilmington Township, on which is located their farm, and John, the youngest son, bought out the widow's right and made the place his home, his step-mother moving to the vicinity of Richmond, Indiana, where she became a member of Whitewater m.m. and there she ended her days. She was the mother of our friend Christopher Lewis of Carey town neighbors, who lived at the home of herself and Daniel Lewis, and of Thomas and her self while they lived in Highland County, Ohio. She had other daughters.

Of Reuben Underwood, I have learned no more than I have set forth Underwood Isaac. I have made mention of him in previous page. And add here that prior to his marriage with Catharine Bell he made satisfaction and was continued a member, 8/14/1866.

The 3rd son.

Underwood John, married aside from Friends order, but made due acknowledgment and was continued in membership 2/18/1847. He was certified to Fall Creek m.m. Ind., 3/16/1854, and I believe he lived thereafter in Hamilton Co. that state.

The 4th son.

Underwood, Zephaniah having some time become a member of Miami m.m. perhaps on the laying down of Center m.m. in 1866, married, under the care of the former, Matilda J. Downing, daughter of Jacob (decd) and Jane M. (Underwood) Downing, the latter came to this Zephaniah, who was a very industrious and pious man, and prospered. Had one and carried on a farm in the "Texas" neighborhood 3 or 4 miles northwest of New Antioch, Clinton Co., O. He later settled in the west edge of Clinton County, about 2 miles east of Hannysburg, adjoining the old Ames Underwood home there, and there he remained till his death, and had 2 sons and 2 daughters. The next year his widow married her widower neighbor and brother-in-law, Edwin Underwood, who lived with her since at Zephaniah's old home.

The 5th son.

Underwood Amos, left a widow and one daughter at his death on a farm near Zephaniah's "Texas" farm, and I believe it still belongs to the daughter, who lives with a husband and children in New Antioch, again said. Amos' marriage was accomplished aside from Friends order but he made satisfaction and was continued a member, 2/15/1849.

The 6th son.

Underwood, Lewis - obtained a certificate to Westfield Ohio m.m. 8/16/1851, in order to marriage with Sarah B. Stratton (Stratton) - daughter of William L. and Bathsheba (Brown) Stratton. Later, 2/16/1859 he was certified to Fall Creek m.m. Ind., and lived in the County of Hamilton, aforesaid, I believe. The first daughter.

Underwood, Abner, who, as appears, became a member at Center with his father, 9/17/1852. He was appointed one of the Representatives to the Ia. A. 10/19/1849. She, as our friend's mother, became the wife of Daniel Bailey of the same settlement, in Clinton County, son of that Daniel Bailey who entered and lived on the Daniel Bailey Survey of Lower town, No. 2613. She was reckoned for her on Survey 10/14/1852. - (See Bailey, Abner). The 7th son.

Underwood, Thomas, became a member at Center as Abner did at the same time. Died before he came of age.

The second daughter.

Underwood, Priscilla Jane, became a member at Center at the last time a.d. She married under the care of her mother, 5/18/1857, to James Moore. After her death (which prayer book has taken place till after the moving to Indiana) James was certified to Fall Creek m.m. Ind., 5/17/1855. She has some children, but I am not sure. He also settled in Hamilton County, Indiana. The 8th son.

Underwood, William, married, aside from the order of Friends, Catharine Hummelt, daughter of Thomas and (Barth) Hummelt. The latter daughter of the old partner of said Bailey of land, and sister of Abner's husband who was built to Catharine. William and Catharine had a good farm a little farther west than the Bailey homestead and stay, in the adjoining Survey of land, to wit M. Bates Survey No. 2040. With his father, stepmother and brother John, he had been certified to Miami m.m. 4/13/1850. In that m.m. he made due acknowledgment and was continued a member, and proved a valuable one. He prospered in his business, but owing to failing health, he was out a while before his death and moved to California. The 9th son.

Underwood, Zedek, I have already written of in part, and now add that he married first to Esther Cook, whose people Lived in Warren Co., just west of Clarksville - about 12 miles west. She was not a member, and the marriage was not by Friends' means, but by mere satisfaction with her m. m. Miami, and remains a Friend. Lettie was a very pleasant woman, and friendly as well as friendly, and two of her children have become members. She died about 3 or 4 years ago of cancer of the stomach, and about 12 years ago Leibel married his brother's widow who was also his cousin's daughter - (See Underwood, Zephoniah). His son, our Friend Danie Bailey Underwood) occupied his late home - the last residence of his father Simon. Leibel has been a successful a farmer and fruit raiser, and prospered after the manner of the Underwood family.

Underwood, Mary Ann } Probably sisters.
Underwood, Rebecca Jane }

There is scarcely a doubt that they were at least relatives of each other, and it is strongly probable that they were relatives of the father and Anna Underwood, friends. Each was accepted 6.15.1854 on separate certificates from (Carmel m. m. - (Women's) minute say Carmel Co. - which I deem an error. I think it is in Ohio) Observe, that the same year Isaac, son of Anna, was also accepted from (Carmel m. m. - They were probably Isaac's cousins. The certificates of these sisters were directed to Miami m. m. which carried them to Center m. m. Mary Ann married a Pl. either in Ohio, or after going west. Both sisters now meet and became, de facto, members of Marietta m. m. in Marshall Co., Iowa, after Illinois' y. d. was so near, if not beyond.

Walker, Mordica

Walker, Rachel

This Pioneer pair were accepted at Miami m. m. 12.13.1804, and it appears they settled not far from Wagonville. They brought their certificates from Hopewell m. m. Jackson Co., Va. It appears they brought about 1000 acres of land in Thomas Pate's survey, 10.1807, just west of the Wilmington, which he ceded between his sons Abel & William and two daughters - one of whom was Lydia, and married Joseph Smith and the other married a Dabbs, and was the mother of that Henry Dabbs whom I should like to see in a dispute in the time of the war of the rebellion - about 1862-3. Later Mordica settled himself on the west side of South Street, near its mouth end, in what is the present Wilmington and lived in a log house. Afterward occupied a good while by Henry B. Conley, at one time County Sheriff. He took certificates for himself and wife to Center m. m. 1.23.1815, and I suppose he settled there about that time. In the latter part of his life he was for a while afflicted with blindness, and William Dabbs, his grand son, had in charge to wait on him and lead him wherever he wanted to walk. In 1828 John came there and lived all night with him, and there is no doubt was very helpful to them. Mordica too was of it, and said that
