

---

70 YEARS AGO

---

A horse was stolen from Lewis Underwood, of Adams township. He came to town, had bills printed and sent to the Sheriff of forty counties. The horse was found and the thief captured at Winchester. Underwood went to Winchester, got his horse and the thief. The thief is in custody, but is supposed to be insane as he rode to Winchester without a saddle.

---