"The Klingers", by Mary Klinger, Library of Congress Catalog Card # 89-84138. Published by Gateway Press, Inc., pp. 10, 11.

Johannes Klinger came to America on the ship Albany 2/9/1749 with cousin Alexander Klinger (cousin through mothers Agatha and Anna Catharine Heist); married Christina Fuss on 20/9/1753, daughter of Nicolaus Fuss. Johanne's father died when he was eight months old (Johann William) and his mother married Johann Jakob Gaertner. Johannes left with his cousin Alexander Klinger from Wuertenberg, Erbach, Germany to Rotterdam, Holland, and Cowes, England, and landed at Philadelphia, according to Pennsylvania German Pioneers. He settled near Yellow Springs, now Chester Springs, Pikeland Township, Chester County.

Johannes is buried with his wife, Margretha in the same grave at Vincent Reformed Church, both were of Lutheran faith....(Records taken from Vincent Reformed Church, Volume 1, 1733-1833, pg. 122.)
