44. Email, from Wilma ID0379 dated 1 Jan 2007. I also believed that Henry belonged to Clara.

I had a researcher in Germany look into the birth and found that it was Maria who was the mother.

I have the records in Indiana that tell of the father of Maria, Valentin, went to another town and filed the birth record. It does not show who the father was.

I think that may have been the reason they came to the USA.

They came to be with a brother of Elisabetha, wife of Valentins brother. His name is Becker and he was a preacher.

Will give you those records when I return to Indiana.

Hermannshohle (Hermann's Cave) - by the reservoir in Niederhausen

At this time one is trying to preserve this historically valuable building for future generations. In old times, before the erection of the Luitpold-bridge, this house served as a ferry station, where the vehicles (vessels) crossed the Nahe river between Bad Kreuznac and the area around Meisenheim on their trade routes. This is proven, among other things, by a certificate of operations * "Nahe-ferry Oberhausen" in the year 1779, which was granted to Johann Peter Haas by Carl Theodore Lord of Pfalz near Rhein.

This picture was taken on April 19, 1961. (Notes from Wilma: *sort of a franchise to run the ferry granted by the local count or baron. Your g. grandfather Henry Haas was born here.)

OBITUARY. Caroline Whetstone Haas was born Sept. 8th, 1851, in Crawford county Ohio, and departed this life Jan. 21, 1928, in Muncie, Ind., aged 76 years, 4 months and 13 days. From Crawford county she came with her parents to Williams county. In the year 1873 she was united in marriage to Henry Haas who has preceded [misprint] her in death 23 years. To this union were born nine children, 5 of whom have preceded her to the Great beyond. She leaves to mourn their loss 4 sons, Frank of Hartford City, Ind, John and August of Muncie, Ind and Valentine of Stryker. Fourteen grand children and two great grandchildren and a host of other relatives an friends. She was one of a family of 14 children, all girls, of which four sisters remain. In later years she has made her home in Muncie, Ind. Although like most of the older generation she did not have the advantage of an education, but was always fond of reading her Bible, and in her last hours said to her son how she loved church. She was great worker and always glad if anybody had some work for her, just so her hands were kept busy. Rest dear hands, thy work is o'er. Rest in peace and toll no more. Card of Thanks. We wish to thank all who assisted in any way during the burial of our mother, to the minister and singers also do we extend our thanks. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas, Mr. and Mrs. John Haas, Mr. and Mrs. August Haas.
