Extract: Talks about AJ attempting to fit into the Chester mm family - it seemed he did not receive a very warm welcome - He was from the brother (Milton) who had shunned the religious life - the financial leadership was firmly in the hands of brother Allen and the leadership roles of the small congregation were in the hands of Noah and his children. There seemed little space left for AJ to blossom. [Note 1, page 259: Minutes of the Chester Preparative Meeting of the Westfield mm 1890-1897, OWYM. Tomlinson had higher assessments, for example, than Robert, Asher, Finley, and Morton Tomlinson.

FUNERAL RITES MRS. ROBBINS

Died Near fishers and Burial Friday at Chester

Following a protracted illness due principally to the infirmities of age, Mrs. Kiziah Robbins, widow of Isaac Robbins, died, Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Mollenkoff, two miles east of Fishers, with whom she had been living for the past four years. She was eighty years old.

The funeral will be held at the Chester Friends church, north of Westfield, at 11 o'clock, Friday morning. Rev. Jehu Reagan, of Hortonville, will have charge of the services and the interment will occur in the cemetery near the church. The family lived in the vicinity of Chester and Hortonville for many years and is well known in the northwestern part of the county. The husband died twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by two sons besides the daughter at whose home her death occurred. They are Oscar Robbins, five miles west of Cicero and Chisthops [sic] Robbins, near Oaklondon. A brother, A. J. Tomlinson, of Cleveland, Tenn; a sister, Mrs. Alva Kivett, of Frankfort, and a half-sister, Mrs. Alpha Carey, of the Chester Neighborhood also survive.
